California Mecca for Church People.

Railroad ticket agencies in New York report sales of tickets to the Pacific Coast far in excess of previous years. Large numbers of these are bought by people interested in Christian work in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, attendance at which has already broken records for such expositions. All roads carrying through business to the Coast report advances. All of them also offer exceptional rates a little later to church conventions to be held in great numbers in Coast cities.

Baptists of the North, whose headbeld in great numbers in Coast cities.

Baptists of the North, whose headquarters are in this city, have fixed their annual mectings, all agencies, for Los Angeles, and Baptists in great numbers have already arranged to go. Even special trains are provided for. Ministers among Congregationalists. Baptists and Methodists are heading excursion parties. Several are to go from this city.
